STEELE-TAYLOR.

Wednesday evening at nine o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCallan, on North Foster street, was witnessed one of the most beautiful home wedding of the season.

The fortunate and happy couple were Mr. Rea Steele and Miss Jessie Taylor.

Miss Taylor has been for two years one of the popular teachers of the Dothan public schools. During her stay she has made many warm and admiring friends.

Mr. Steele has been for several years the manager of the Enterprise Lumber Company, one of the largest plants of the city. He is considered one of our leading business men and is one of the most popular young men in Dothan.

Rev. W. M. Anderson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, performed the ceremony in his usual impressive style.

The happy couple left on the 11:05 Coast Line for Elberton, Ga., the home of Mrs. Steele, where they will spend the holidays.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Steele wish them a Merry Christmas and a happy life.

Mr. Smith Hall and wife, from Gordon, were in the city yesterday. Mr. Hall was elected tax collector for this county at the last election, and will soon move to Dothan and live here during his term of office.

The B. P. O. Elks, of Dothan are making preparation to send Santa Claus to the homes in Dothan, where he is not expected. That is one of the many good features of this order. It makes a specialty of doing something for the poor, and it goes about it in the right kind of way to reach those most in need of assistance.

THANKS HER FRIENDS.

Mr. J. C. Moore, winner of the Gold Watch, the second prize in the Eagle's popular voting contest, desires to thank her many friends for their support from the beginning to the close of the contest. She appreciates the way her friends worked, and wants to assure them, each and all, that she heartily thanks them for their assistance.

A CARD OF THANKS.

Miss Daughety desires to thank each and every person who so kindly voted for her in the recent popular voting contest, which made it possible for her to win the first prize, the piano. She could not see or write them all, to express her thanks, and desires to assure them in this manner, that their loyal support was very much appreciated.

BUILDING LOT—West Main St., beautiful situation, $1,500; terms Address Box 1904, Dothan, Ala.

Enlarge, improved and protected, and traveling by its own special train of monster railway cars, the Famous John H. Sparks' Shows will exhibit at Dothan, December 31st, afternoon and night.

Mr. Sparks promises to surprise and delight his old friends and patrons with the great additions that he has made, and the wonderful new feature that he has secured for the present season. That he has expended a fortune and doubled his daily expense will be plainly seen when his new train and monster cars roll into town. These cars have been especially built for him, and are larger and of greater capacity than any others that ever were built. They are specially designed to carry the immense quantity of new and costly paraphernalia which has been secured to make this exhibition superior to all others of the kind.

Surely this is the greatest of all entertainments to make you forget your troubles and feel that life is really worth living. You will be able to perform your business duties with a new zeal after witnessing Brush. He is a humorist in every sense of the word. Uses a flow of language that is full of comedy, and while listening to him mystery follows surprise in rapid succession.

MODERN MAGIC.

Mr. Edwin Brush's magical entertainment is remarkable for its variety of mystery as for the mystery itself. He presents tricks culled from England, China, France, India, improved and added to until the inventors themselves have to "give it up." Many of his best feats of magic are "his own invention," as the immortal "Alice" says, and hence absolutely new to any audience. It requires a good sized dry goods store and menagerie in combination to supply the varied and numerous articles and animals which so mysteriously appear in air, fire and water, a few of many being gloves, handkerchiefs, candles, balls, money, hats, birds, guinea pigs, sausages, a fire bowl, a fish bowl with gold fish, fish pole, watch, beans, oranges, block of wood, spirit slate and table, the fortune-telling silver dollars, and glass, basket and apparatus for Hindu basket trick; duck, rabbit, lamps, flags, guns, Chinese rice, water, etc., ad infinitum. It would take the memory of a Lord Macaulay to recall the complete equipment of a modern magician such as Edwin Brush.

CICERONIAN NOTES.

In the debating and declamation contest held last Friday night, the Ciceronians won the debate. Mention as the best debater was given to James McLeod, who is a member of this society.

Charley Franklin of the Franklin Society, won in the declamation contest. Too much cannot be said of the admirable way in which all the contestants carried out their parts.

Debaters and declaimers were elected Monday for the contest of February the twenty second, 1909.

The debaters elected were Jesse Pittman and Oscar Adams. It was decided to have one boy and two girls to declaim, instead of three girls. The following were elected: Mack Flowers, Harriet Crawford, and Ida Reid.

The former members of the Ciceronian Society who met with us are, Misses Hill, Malone and McCarty. At this meeting an interesting program was carried out. The declamation by Mack Flowers and the humorous story by Louise Lee were very much enjoyed. The debate, "Resolved, that electricity is of more benefit to mankind than steam," was one of the best given the past month. John Banks Harris brought out some strong points on the subject.

After the election of the debaters and declaimers, the Society adjourned to meet January the fourth, nineteen hundred and nine.

Miss Alice Odum went to Enterprise this morning.

Dr. D. B. Kelly, of Slocomb, was here today.

Leslie Long went to Gordon this evening to spend Christmas.

It has been almost a year since Christmas was here, but we haven't all forgotten how it seems.

R. L. Coe, of Slocomb, was in town this morning, and left a dollar for his paper.

Leola Faulk is at home from Montevallo College.

Ophelia Hunter has returned from Blackstone, Va., where she has been in College.

Phillip Augustine leaves tomorrow for a few days visit to Birmingham and Anniston.

H. H. Brown, wife and daughter, left this morning for Tallahassee, Fla., where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Brown's brother.

L. J. Jordan, who has been at Clanton, in the cotton business this season, is at home for Christmas.

Col. H. E. Stearns, the Cotton Exchange man, has left for his home in Selma, to spend a few days with his family.

The city did a wise thing when it said that fire crackers were not necessary to a good time during the holidays.

A wagon was hunted up and the piano was loaded on it, and sent out to Miss Daugherty last night. The watch was boxed and delivered to Mrs. Moore last night.

There are many clerks in Dothan tonight who are glad the day is over.

Fred McDaniel, who is attending school at Auburn, is at home to spend Christmas.

Alex May, who has been selling machines in Florida for some time, is at home.

Fugitive Glimpses.

The stewards of a Beaumont church have formulated a rule which forbids ladies to wear hats in church. Since oil was struck at Beaumont the men of the churches have caught only fugitive glimpses of the preacher.

Catching a Navy.

It does look as if a cowboy with a lariat could walk along the Venezuela coast and capture the navy in about three days.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mrs. B.—I suppose you find your daughter very much improved by her two year's stay at college?

Mrs. Proudmother—La! yes! Mary Elizabeth is a carnivorous reader now, and she frequently impoverishes music. But she ain't a bit stuck up—she's unanimous to everybody, an' she never keeps a caller waitin' for her to dress; she just runs in nom de plume, an' you know that makes one feel so comfortable.—Tit-Bits.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

While a negro was moving a family on J. C. Gullford's place yesterday, a pair of mules ran away, and threw the negro out, breaking one of his legs. He was holding a little four-year-old son on Jim Hinson's in his lap and the little boy's leg was broken also.

The runaway horses around town have been behaving themselves remarkably well for the last few days, until this morning when they started up their ugly tricks again, by one of their number dashing in to the front of Dr. Stough's drug store in Dixie, and smashing all the glass around.

Those convicts who escaped from the Enterprise Lumber Company last night, may only want to stay off till after Christmas, and like as not, they will show up again next week. They got out about the time their genial boss, Rea Steele, was getting married.

TEACHERS OFF HOME.

The following teachers of the Dothan city schools, have left for their homes, to spend the week:

Mrs. Lelia Poyner, Miss Mary Armistead, Miss Elizabeth Underwood, Miss Rosa Lee, Miss Vera Shackelford, Miss Besie O'Hara, Miss Elizabeth Woolf, Miss Mattie DeBardeleben, Miss Foy Pitts, Mr. H. C. Carlisle.

FRANKLIN SOCIETY.

The Franklin Society met December 21st, in the Music Room, and carried out an interesting program. According to Mr. Brown's request, we elected our representatives for the contest in February. Byrd Kelly and Rowe Watson were elected to debate; Frankie Howell, Fannie Florence, and Tom Blackshear were elected to declaim.

F. E. CALL

GIFT AND GREETING.

In quiet little Bethlehem,
That first far Christmas morn,
'Twas "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."
Thus greeting to the world came then,
When Christ, our Lord, was born.

It was to him that gifts were brought,
The gold and myrrh and incense sweet;
The Wise Men swift the Savior sought—
Their hearts with love and wonder fraught—
And laid them at his feet.

So I today to each dear friend
Send thoughts of peace and love;
And if I have a title to spend,
Shall find one "least of these" and send
My simple gift in love.

Where cheer and love are sent,
Maybe,
And want's cold clutch not new,
The gift to such as these, and He
Will be remembered properly.
The greeting unto you.
